COMMODORE'S COMMENTS

As I'm writing this, the temperature is in the '60s. It's finally time for our boats to leave their winter storage areas and move to their slips. However, with gas prices as they are, they probably won't move out of them as often as we would like.

I'm looking forward to the "Shove-Off-Spree" on May 9th. We already have 60 people signed up to attend, including some from Waukesha Cruise Fleet, Milwaukee Harbor Yacht Club, and McBoat. I know a good time will be had by all.

Bonnie and I were in Arizona for my older brother's surprise 70th birthday party and couldn't attend the April meeting, but I heard the "White Elephant Auction" elicited much laughter and lots of fun. Thanks to Grey and Cindy Halstead for filling in for Bonnie and me. Thanks also to Jim and Connie Heyden and George and Sam Graubner for running this event.

In other news, the Milwaukee Common Council passed the LMYA-initiated "no-wake rule" in the Inner Harbor during special events. This shows how concerned boaters are able to make a difference. Way to go, Wayne!

Our "Shove-Off-Spree" is the beginning of our MBC summer events. Other May/June events include "Captains (First Mates) Breakfasts, River Splash, our "Champagne/Cold Duck" social at McKinley Marina's Pavilion, and the "LMYA Annual Anniversary Cruise" to Racine. Be sure to check our website for further details.

Hope to see you all soon,

Pete Merryfield

Committee Reports:

LMYA – Wayne Happel informed members that the ordinance regarding a no-wake rule in the Inner Harbor from one hour before to one hour after special events at the lakefront was approved on April 9th. It will be in effect until December 31, 2010, and will require a request for renewal at that time.

Any new business? – Craig Hesper was selling raffle tickets for Riverwalk for Breast Cancer to be held at Frame Park in Waukesha on Saturday, May 3.

Dave Dorner reminded members of the MBC annual “River Splash” event coming up Saturday, May 30th. Details to follow.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 P.M. and followed by our always enjoyable, but particularly funny “White Elephant” auction. The highlight of the evening was the wigs and hairpieces that Connie and Jim Heyden brought to be auctioned off. It was hilarious watching the high bidders model their new wigs. Everyone had a great laugh. Good times were had by all!

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Halstead

DRY DOCK

Mary Bykowski is back home following her recent surgery. We all wish her a speedy recovery!
